GMAT Scoring & Time Management: Expert Tips

Verbal Reasoning

- Reading Comprehension: Scan for structure, focus on main ideas & relationships.
- Critical Reasoning: Ask, "What's the author's assumption?" to speed up decision-making.
- Start Strong: The first few questions matter the most—set a strong tone.

Quantitative Reasoning

- Speed is Key: Answer easy questions in 90 seconds or less.
- Guess Smart: If stuck, make an educated guess.
- Don't Rush on Last 5: Focus on accuracy for the last questions, not speed.

Data Insights

- Multi-Source Reasoning: Triaging helps—ignore irrelevant data quickly.
- Graphics Interpretation: Focus on axes and labels first, then dive into details.
- Two-Part Questions: Break down problems step-by-step, don't rush.
